REPLACEMENT SOLUTION

In January 2021 Vizrt launched Flexible Access suites. As part of the Flexible Access offerings, we currently have Automation, Graphics and Live production solutions. We will also introduce a replacement solution that will be similar in capability to Viz Opus which will be offered as a replacement for existing Viz Opus Customers. Alongside this we will also have a premium solution available for both existing and new customers. The replacement will not be covered under existing support agreements. For more information please contact your sales account manager for more information.
